

For Academic Year 2023 – 2024

Hancock County Master Gardener Scholarship Application

Note: Application Deadline is April 30, 2023

Applicants must be enrolled in college in Fall 2023 in an Agriculture or Horticulture Major Applicant must be a resident of Hancock County or Henry County, Indiana

1. The Hancock County Master Gardener Association is a volunteer organization that wants to support applicants who are enrolled in college and are majoring in a related Agriculture or Horticulture field and are actively engaged in a course of study that is directly relevant to the development, cultivation, maintenance, protection, improvement and/or use of plants that are important to the health, nourishment, interest and/or enjoyment of the citizens and/or benefit of the natural environment.

2. The Association will make available one $1000 scholarship for the 2023 – 2024 academic year to a student who a) exhibits a strong interest in the subject; b) is committed to additional study; and, c) has set clear goals as to how they will use their knowledge and advance their career in their chosen field of study. Recommendations for scholarship recipients will be made by the Hancock County Master Gardener Scholarship Committee based on information contained in applications. The scholarship will be remitted after the beginning of the 2023 Fall term to the college in which the recipient is enrolled, to be applied to the recipient's account.

3. If you wish to be considered to receive this scholarship, please submit this form and any requested documents. If you prefer, you may mail this form and documents to Hancock County Master Gardeners Association, Attention: Scholarship Committee, 802 North Apple Street, Greenfield, Indiana 46140.
